Digital Sales:

Hillary Salazar

Hillary may be new to Flinn as a Digital Sales Specialist but her successful background as a former Science Teacher aids her drive to pass on her vast knowledge to our customers. Her cheerful approach, attention to detail, and outstanding rapport with her former peers makes her the perfect candidate and a valuable contributor to those teachers that are seeking to enhance their science curriculum.

Higher Education Account Manager:

Dean Pesare

Dean Pesare is the new dedicated account manager for Higher Education in the Western US Territory. Even as a newer member of Flinn, Dean has spent the last 16 years working with school districts across the country at all levels identifying curriculum and comprehensive professional development plans that are the perfect fit for teachers. Dean brings a plethora of experience in helping school districts support their teachers and students and we are excited to have his experience on the Flinn team.
